

Grew out of the Transcendental movement of the mid-1800s Founded by Charles and Myrtle Fillmore in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1889

WHO WE ARE

Emphasizes the Divine in each person and the creative power of thought Offers support to millions of people who consider themselves spiritual but not religious Provide tools for spiritual transformation to people around the world through print and digital media

Offer prayer to those in need through the Unity prayer ministry (Silent Unity®), available 24/7 by phone, text, or online

WHAT WE DO

Offer respite to visitors at this beautiful
1,200-acre
campus, which includes an award-winning
hotel and Airbnbs,
golf course, bookstore,
rose garden, fishing
lakes, and nature trails

OUR MISSION

To help and serve through prayer, publishing, and community.

OUR VISION

Advancing the global movement of spiritual awakening and transformation through Unity.

OUR VALUES

Guided by Spirit, as a community and as individuals, we agree to exhibit and demonstrate these values:

Inclusiveness We are an inclusive, equitable culture of oneness.

Inspiration We inspire and awaken

people to the Divine within.

Innovation We seek continuous improvement in all that we do.

Creativity We create meaningful products and services that have extraordinary impact.

Community We are a community of collaboration, growth, and accountability.

Service We serve.

"Unity is a beacon to direct our ship during the good and the not-so-good times. Unity helps us receive the lessons we are here to learn—to grow spiritually—and we are truly grateful." —Jon DuBois, Young Harris, Georgia

816-524-3550 unity.org